Course Description

This course covers the basic practice and theory of drawing with color and monochromatic media.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Exhibit a basic working knowledge of fundamental techniques in the following media: pencil, pencil crayon, conté and ink.
- Utilize the Elements of Art (line, shape, value and texture) and the Principles of Organization (harmony and variety).
- Explore means of representation based on visual observation that utilizes a variety of techniques.
- Begin to explore means of abstraction, content and personal interpretations.
- Develop critical evaluation skills.

Recommended Reading

Otto G. Ocvirk ed. Art Fundamentals: Theory and Practice 9th Edition. McGraw Hill: New York, NY, 2002.

Course Schedule

The following are the subjects that will be covered. Each of the subjects will have a short introductory lecture, related studio project and critique.

- Introduction to color media. Discussion of color and value relationships.
- Strategies and manipulation of color media through a variety of still life and real life drawings.
- Development of subjective and objective drawing strategies.
- Development of abstraction.
- Continuation of figure drawing, proportions, sighting and foreshortening
- Master's Drawing study.

Course Requirements and Grading

Students are responsible for making themselves aware of all assignments and due dates announced in class. Absences do not excuse students from this responsibility. No late assignments will be accepted without prior arrangement with the instructor.

Grade distribution is as follows:

1 st portfolio	25%
2 nd portfolio	25%
Final portfolio	50%

Supplies

Students are required to purchase their own art supplies and have them available for both lecture and lab times. Attached is a list of your basic supplies. Further supplies may be requested by the instructor through out the semester. Not having the required supplies does not exempt you from assignments or class. Please come to class with all of your supplies each day, unless specifically told otherwise.

Important Notes

- Mandatory fee - TBA
(these costs will automatically be added to your account by the registrar)
- Last day to enter a course without permission, and to withdraw receiving tuition refund is Jan. 20th, 2006
- Last day to voluntarily withdraw from course or change to audit without academic penalty is Mar. 10th 2006.
- It is the responsibility of all students to become familiar with and adhere to NUC Academic Policies, such as the policy on Academic Dishonesty, which are stated in the current Catalogue.

Art Supplies

These may be purchased any where. The following are priced at Colours Art Store on the NE corner of 14th St. and 16th Ave. Take your student ID or proof of registration where ever you shop, and make sure you ask for if they have a student discount. Colours give a 10% discount. NOTE: majority of these supplies were used for Art 241 in Fall session.
