Course Description:

A continuation of the supervised practical experience placement in a community, faith-based, or social agency related to the student's interest and/or future vocational plans. Students are expected to be involved in a supervised practicum site for 5-8 hours per week (60 hours minimum/term). Weekly seminars will focus on the role and influence of the helper, ethics and standards of practice, the nature of the helping relationship, and the process of helping.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of the course, the student should be able to demonstrate:

- Skills in identifying and clarifying the specific ethical concerns that emerge as a result of the unique nature of the helping relationship;
- The ability to mobilize his or her values, beliefs, needs, and goals in order to further the healthy development of individuals, groups, or programs;
- A deeper understanding of the professional skills, competencies, and challenges unique to the process of becoming an ethical practitioner;
- The ability to apply the ethical and legal principles to a variety of settings and human experiences; and
- Assimilation of the professional and ethical principles into his or her own value structure, thus becoming an ethical behavioural science practitioner.

Course Requirements and Grading

- 1) Textbook Exercises: There will be ten (10) textbook exercise assignments that are due on the day that each chapter will be discussed. Specifics of each assignment will be provided, but will normally involve responding to questions that require self-reflection, skill review, and application to your current practicum placement. You are expected to hand in completed assignments at the beginning of each class, as well as share portions of their responses during class. Each assignment will be worth 5% of the final grade (10 X 5% = 50%).
- 2) Supervisor Evaluation: Site supervisors will be asked to complete a comprehensive evaluation of your practicum performance. Areas to be evaluated include basic work effectiveness (e.g., time use, reliability), ethical awareness and conduct (e.g., sensitivity, consultation), knowledge and learning (e.g., of clients, role and purpose of professional setting), response to supervision (e.g., seeking and receiving feedback), interactions with clients and co-workers (e.g., rapport-building, communication), and productivity (e.g., record keeping, report writing). Supervisor evaluations will be handed out three weeks prior to the end of term and are due on April 17, 2006. The supervisor evaluation will be worth 35% of the final grade.
- 3) Self-Evaluation: All students will complete a comprehensive self-evaluation related to the areas indicated above (i.e., supervisor evaluation). You will also be required to complete a brief (5-6 pages) reflection paper as it pertains to your practicum experience. The focus of the paper should be to articulate any ethical, legal, and/or professional issues that were notable during your practicum. Chapters 3 through 8 will be useful in organizing your reflections for this assignment. This self-evaluation and reflection paper is due on April 17, 2006, and is worth 15% of your final grade.

Course Guidelines:

- 1) Attendance at class is expected from each student. After three (3) unexcused absences (per term), the instructor reserves the right to ask a student to withdraw from the class.
- 2) The written assignments are due on the dates specified. Extensions will only be granted upon request of the student at least two (2) weeks prior to the due date. In the case of illness or other extenuating circumstances, exceptions may be made.
