Course Description

Explores the vocabulary and movement range of classical ballet technique at the intermediate level. Attention will be given to body placement, balance, flexibility and strength. Emphasis will be placed on integrated movement, alignment, classical ballet vocabulary, artistic expression, and joy of movement. Attendance at one assigned ballet performance is mandatory.

Expected Learning Outcomes

Students in DA 203 will be expected to demonstrate:

- An intermediate knowledge of ballet technique
- Understanding of complex musicality, timing, and rhythm
- Improved coordination, alignment, and posture of all movements
- Understanding of selected ballet vocabulary
- Execution of selected barre and centre exercises
- Classes in September will focus on the foundations of classical technique
- Classes in October will work to expand from those foundations to more difficult steps
- Classes in November will be geared toward the performance of the final exam

Course Schedule

Requirements:

All students are required to wear appropriate attire to class. They should wear form fitting clothing such as tights, leggings, bodysuits/leotards, and ballet shoes, as well as hair should be pulled back from face and preferably be tied into a bun. Any dance attire can be purchased at one of the many dance stores in the city such as...

- Bodythings Dancewears
- Masque Dance & Costumes
- Classique Dancewear

There will be one major assignment for this class that is worth 20% of the final grade. It will be a 2000 word paper on the performance of Alberta Ballet Sleeping (Oct 24-27). I will be looking for the following criteria...

- Analyzing of Technique
- Miming sections
- Story through classical ballet
- Difference between Corps de Ballet and Soloist work
- Overall performance and enjoyment

It is due Saturday November 17 at 11:59pm.

Attendance:

Attendance is a large factor in the grade at 20% of the final mark. I will be looking for...

- Being on time
- Prepared and ready to work(proper clothes and hair, warming up, positive attitude)
- Participation
- Work ethic
- Taking direction

Technique:

Throughout the semester I will be grading the students on the proper use of ballet technique. This will make up 30% of the overall grade. I will be looking for...

- Strong pointed feet and stretched legs
- Use of turnout and rotation of the hips
- Correct posture
- Use of Port de Bras and alignment of the head
- Coordination
- Ability to jump and land properly
- Pirouettes and turns
- Artistry and performance

Final Exam:

Final Exam will be held on the last day of class(Friday, Decmeber 7) and will be worth 30% of the overall grade. It will be a demonstration of steps that we have worked on through the semester as well as an oral section answering questions on the theory of the steps.

Ambrose University Academic Policies:

Communication

All students have received an Ambrose e-mail account upon registration. It is the student's responsibility to check this account regularly as the Ambrose email system will be the professor's instrument for notifying students of important matters (cancelled class sessions, extensions, requested appointments, etc.) between class sessions. If students do not wish to use their Ambrose accounts, they will need to forward all messages from the Ambrose account to another personal account.

Registration

During the Registration Revision Period students may enter a course without permission, change the designation of any class from credit to audit and /or voluntary withdraw from a course without financial or academic penalty or record. Courses should be added or dropped on the student portal by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. After that date, the original status remains and the student is responsible for related fees.

Students intending to withdraw from a course after the Registration Revision Period must apply to the Office of the Registrar by submitting a "Request to Withdraw from a Course" form or by sending an email to the Registrar's Office by the Withdrawal Deadline; please consult the List of Important Dates on the my.ambrose.edu website. Students will not receive a tuition refund for courses from which they withdraw after the Registration Revision period. A grade of "W" will appear on their transcript.

Students wishing to withdraw from a course, but who fail to do so by the applicable date, will receive the grade earned in accordance with the course syllabus. A student obliged to withdraw from a course after the Withdrawal Deadline because of health or other reasons may apply to the Registrar for special consideration.

Exam Scheduling

Students, who find a conflict in their exam schedule must submit a Revised Examination Request form to the Registrar's Office by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. Requests will be considered for the following reasons only: 1) the scheduled final examination slot conflicts with another exam; 2) the student has three final exams within three consecutive exam time blocks; 3) the scheduled final exam slot conflicts with an exam at another institution; 4) extenuating circumstances. Travel is not considered a valid excuse for re-scheduling or missing a final exam.

Electronic Etiquette

Students are expected to treat their instructor, guest speakers, and fellow students with respect. It is disruptive to the learning goals of a course or seminar and disrespectful to fellow students and the instructor to use electronics for purposes unrelated to the course during a class session. Turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices during class. Laptops should be used for class-related purposes only. Do not use iPods, MP3 players, or headphones. Do not text, read, or send personal emails, go on Facebook or other social networks, search the internet, or play computer games during class. Some professors will not allow the use of any electronic devices in class. The professor has the right to disallow the student to use a laptop in future lectures and/or to ask a student to withdraw from the session if s/he does not comply with this policy. Repeat offenders will be directed to the Dean. If you are expecting communication due to an emergency, please speak with the professor before the class begins.

Academic Policies

It is the responsibility of all students to become familiar with and adhere to academic policies as stated in the Academic Calendar. Personal information (information about an individual that may be used to identify that individual) may be required as part of taking this class. Any information collected will only be used and disclosed for the purpose for which the collection was intended. For further information contact the Privacy Compliance Officer at privacy@ambrose.edu.

Extensions

Although extensions to coursework in the semester are at the discretion of the instructor, students may not turn in coursework for evaluation after the last day of the scheduled final examination period unless they have received permission for a course Extension from the Registrar's Office. Requests for course extensions or alternative examination time must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by the deadline date; please consult the List of Important Dates. Course extensions are only granted for serious issues that arise "due to circumstances beyond the student's control."

Appeal of Grade

An appeal for change of grade on any course work must be made to the course instructor within one week of receiving notification of the grade. An appeal for change of final grade must be submitted to the Registrar's Office in writing and providing the basis for appeal within 30 days of receiving notification of the final grade, providing the basis for appeal. A review fee of $50.00 must accompany the appeal. If the appeal is sustained, the fee will be refunded.

Academic Integrity

We are committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Academic dishonesty is taken seriously at Ambrose University as it undermines our academic standards and affects the integrity of each member of our learning community. Any attempt to obtain credit for academic work through fraudulent, deceptive, or dishonest means is academic dishonesty. Plagiarism involves presenting someone else's ideas, words, or work as one's own. Plagiarism is fraud and theft, but plagiarism can also occur by accident when a student fails or forgets to acknowledge to another person's ideas or words. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean and become part of the student's permanent record.

Note: Students are strongly advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
