Course Description

The course introduces students to the broad survey of the Western philosophical tradition. Special attention will be given to enduring philosophical issues including, but not limited to, the nature of reality and knowledge, the existence of God, the mind/body problem, freewill and determinism, value theory and ethics.

Course Objectives

1. Students should learn the classical philosophical positions regarding metaphysics, epistemology, and axiology.
2. Students should gain a familiarity with some of the more prominent historical contributors to the Western philosophical tradition.
3. Students should develop an appreciation for the invaluable contribution that philosophy has made to other disciplines and fields such as science, politics, law, education, and theology.

Textbook

Stumpf, S. E., & Abel, D. C. (Eds.). (2002). Elements of Philosophy: An Introduction (4th Edition). New York, NY: McGraw-Hill.

Course Requirements

1. Attendance 15%
  - An attendance sheet will be circulated, signed by each student in attendance, and collected at the beginning of each class session. Each absence from class warrants a reduction of 1% (that is, one of the available 15 marks). Early departures from class should be cleared with the instructor. Leaving class early without excuse warrants a deletion from that day's class roster. Students who come to class late are not entitled to sign the attendance sheet.

2. Midterm Examination 20%
  - October 18th

4. Research Paper 25%
  - Due November 29th @ 1:00 PM
  - Topic: Analyze and evaluate Bertrand Russell and Mary Midgley on the value of philosophy. (Read pages 551-566 in the text)
  - A separate handout regarding format guidelines and late policy will be provided.

5. Final Exam 40%
  - Date: TBA
  - Students must pass the final exam to ensure a passing grade in the course. A student who performs well during the term but fails the final exam may fail the course.
  - Students should refrain from scheduling flights or travel of any sort that will conflict with the Final Examination schedule. Final examinations will not be rescheduled to accommodate travel arrangements.

Grading: The available letters for course grades are as follows:

Letter Grade	GPA	Description	Percentage
A+	4.0		90-100 %

Important Notes

- Cell phones, recording devices, head phones, and all other technology that is not essential for class by the instructor's criteria are prohibited.
- Lap top computers, when not used exclusively for taking class notes, are often a distraction to classmates and even the individual user. Their use is discouraged.
- Lap tops used for purposes unrelated to taking lecture notes are prohibited. Violators will be asked to leave the class. Repeat offenders will be directed to the Deans Office.
- Students are expected to respect the learning environment of the classroom. Make every attempt to be on time. Be prudent and careful in your consumption of food and drink. Keep unnecessary conversations and comments to a minimum as they are distracting to both the instructor and fellow classmates. As well, they are often deleterious to a student's performance in the class.
- Ambrose is committed to fostering personal integrity and will not overlook breaches of integrity such as plagiarism and cheating. Plagiarism and cheating can result in a failing grade for an assignment, for the course, or immediate dismissal from the university college. Students are expected to be familiar with the policies in the current Academic Calendar and the Student Handbook that deal with plagiarism, cheating, and the penalties and procedures for dealing with these matters. All cases of academic dishonesty are reported to the Academic Dean.
- Students are responsible to check their Ambrose e-mail account regularly. E-mail may be used to notify students of cancelled classes or other important details relating to the course.
- Personal information, that is information about an individual that may be used to identify that individual, may be collected as a requirement as part of taking this class. Any information collected will only be used and disclosed for the purpose for which the collection was intended. For further information contact the Privacy Compliance Officer at privacy@ambrose.edu.
- Although extensions to coursework in the semester are at the discretion of the instructor, students may not turn in coursework for evaluation after the last day of the scheduled final examination period unless they have received permission for a "Course Extension." Alternative times for final examinations cannot be scheduled without prior approval. Requests for course extensions or alternative examination time must be submitted to the Registrar's Office by the appropriate deadline. Course extensions are only granted for serious issues that arise "due to circumstances beyond the student's control."
- Students are advised to retain this syllabus for their records.
